

Part 1: The importance of family carers

What are the benefits of having family carers attend consultations with doctors and nurses?

i

If you would like to learn more about the benefits of having family involved in cancer care, click on the tabs below to reveal further information.

Patient

Family carer

Wider network of
family and friends

Clinician